Lodges Hit By Lee

The huge rains that Lee brought our way impacted many lodges in our State. As of press time, we know about the following:

Owego 1039 was invaded by the Susquehanna River on Friday September 9. Many roads are still blocked, one supermarket had water up to the cash registers. The piano in our Rathskellar was floating upside down.

Johnson City 2821 was again flooded, having recovered from flooding in 2006. The members are discussing alternative lodging.

Vestal 2508 was again flooded, as they were in 2006, just months after the new building was opened.

Sidney 2175 has again been flooded, making the third time the lodge has been under water.

This situation is changing rapidly. Anyone with additional information is asked to forward to webmaster@nyselks.org.
