Proceedings Availability

The Proceedings of the New York State Elks Association for the Spring 2018 Convention are now available at nyselks.org under Members Only. From there, it can be viewed, saved locally, or printed.

A Kind Thought Needed

The following folks could use a kind thought or a prayer:
 . Sue Erkkinnen Tom Boehlert
 . Emil Kotasek Martin Rosenthal
 Of course, keep the caregivers in mind .They need a kind thought, too.

From State Secretary Paul

I would remind you that at the Spring Convention the members approved increasing the annual dues to $3.00 with the additional $1.00 dedicated to fund the support of the endorsed NYSE A candidate for Grand Exalted Ruler. The increase takes effect for dues collected starting April 1, 2019 and will continue until changed by vote of the membership. As a reminder, please see Article V of the NYSEA Constitution and understand that due to the short lead time, no invoice will be issued by the Association. Lodges more than 30 days late paying their dues will receive a statement which includes the fifty dollar fine established by the Constitution.

Area 1 Soccer Activity Report

The New York State Elks Association hosted this years Area One Competition with the help of the Northeast District and the Capital District. We came away with two Champions, two Second Place Winners, and three Third Place Winners. Thank you to all of the Lodges and many Volunteers that make the Soccer Shoot Program a Success. Remember "Soccer It's A Kick"!

Patrick Mansfield, Soccer Shoot Chairman
Note: All seven states had competitors in all divisions. The list here is truncated for space reasons. The full list is available at nyselks.org. New York winners in Bold,

Elks Training Now Online

As promised, I have posted at nyselks.org:
 1) My booklet, Elks Training Workshop;
 2) the 2018 – 2019 guided study /"test" questions;
 3) answer sheet, where the references for the correct answer is found. This is a "new" feature to encourage participation by eliminating searches.
 4) Personal information form is printed on a separate sheet. Copy it on the back of the answer sheet (which of course will be returned to me);
 5) the completed answer key, citing the correct answers (True or False);
 Due December 12 to your district committeeman. John Califano, State Chairman

Recognize Top Teens

The new school year is in full swing. Now is an excellent opportunity to reach out to our schools to start a youth recognition program such as the Student of the Month/Year or Teenager of the Month/Year. The method of selecting a Teenager/ Student of the month and year (high school) or Junior Teenager/Student of the month and year (junior high school or middle school) is the responsibility of your Local Lodge Activities Committee.

Each month, when making the presentation, the Lodge and the school officials should put together a newspaper article that will recognize the winner and his or her accomplishments. Make sure that the Elks are included in the newspaper article as sponsors of the program.

At the end of the school year, the nominating committee should select a Student/Teenager of the Year from the pool of monthly award recipients.
